SENSATION IN COURT

Wife Volunteered to Execute Her Own Husband.

GHASTLY STORY OF MURDER

Grewsome Details of Horrible Murder Filled French Papers for Several Months and Postponed a Parliamentary Act.

Paris, July 25.—In spite of the fact that the use of the guillotine in France was suppressed two years ago by the refusal of parliament to continue the appropriation for a public executioner, a jury in this city condemned to death a man named Soleillant for the murder of a little girl under atrocious circumstances.

After subjecting the child to ill-treatment Soleilant plunged a knife into her heart and then completed his horrible work by wrapping up the body in an old sack and carrying it to a nearby railroad station where he checked it in the cloak room.

The grewsome details of this case have been filling the papers for several months past, and has caused such a degree of public indignation that parliament postponed final action on the bill before it to abolish the death penalty in France. But, in spite of the circumstances of the case, President Fallieres, in view of the fact that there is no public executioner, probably will have to commute the sentence to hard labor for life.

Throughout his trial Soleillant aroused the fierce anger of the spectators that filled the court room by his attitude of impudent complacency. When the death sentence was brought in, Soleillant's wife shrieked at her husband:

"Miserable wretch, you would have done better to kill yourself than to dishonor your wife and this child. Let me kill him."

She made an effort to reach the prisoner, but was prevented by court officers, who carried her fainting from the room.

The woman was armed with a revolver. She declared during the hearing that if her husband was condemned, rather than see him die on the block, she would shoot him and then herself

INTERESTING CARTOON.

London Punch Makes Merry at Uncle Sam's Expense.

London, July 25.—A cartoon in Punch is attracting much attention from those persons who are of the belief that the United States is responsible formally for the action of Venezuela in refusing to pay debts that have been passed upon as just by the Hague conference. It portrays the South American republic in the shape of a monkey perched in a tree, holding in its hand a satchel. The tree is labeled "Monroe Doctrine."

Standing beneath the tree are Uncle Sam and a Belgian boy, the latter pointing up at the monkey, saying: "Please, sir, your monkey has taken my bag."

"That's so," replies the genial and smiling Uncle Sam. "Ain't he cute?"

Escapes From Convict Camp.

Tampa, Fla., July 25.—Information has been received here that Frank B. Harmon, alias Hale, alias Hammond, has made his escape from the state convict camp at Hogan, Fla. Harmon was arrested here and sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary for a systematic plan of robbing boarding houses. He was sent to the camps on May 10, and escaped on July 19.

Taft to Visit Canada.

Ottawa, Ont., July 25.—Secretary Taft is expected to pay a visit soon to the St. Lawrence river and gulf. Hon. R. W. Scott, the Canadian secretary of state, is in communication with him regarding the visit. The government, it is expected, will place one of the dominion cruisers at his disposal.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Barksdale Resolution Passed After a Stormy Debate.

[illegible] is anxious [illegible] the matter of insurance was [illegible] the action of [illegible] Barksdale's resolution was [illegible] an overwhelming vote after a [illegible] minutes of stormy debate.

Under the terms of this measure, which has met with the hearty sanction of the insurance men of the state, there is to be appointed a joint committee of two from the senate and three from the house, empowered to sit during the vacation between sessions, for the purpose of investigation, taking testimony and the like, looking toward making suitable recommendations for insurance laws to be enacted at the next session of the general assembly.

After a substitute and one or two amendments had been offered, the resolution by Mr. Barksdale, of the county of Wilkes, to have created an insurance committee to investigate the insurance conditions of the state and report suitable laws for enactment at the next session of the general assembly, prorvoked a lively debate.

Mr. Wright, of Floyd, led the attack on the resolution, declaring it would cost the state thousands of dollars and that the committee would make a report that would be so bulky as could never be digested legislatively.

Mr. Hill, of Monroe, followed and declared that Georgia paid $50,000,000 annually in premiums and that any cost would be well spent to protect these policies.

Just prior to adjournment Tuesday the house passed the bill by Mr. Alexander of DeKalb, which was reported once adversely, sent back to the committee on ways and means, amended and reported favorably.

This measure was in close line with the recent message of Governor Smith touching upon corporation tax arbitrations.

According to its terms the arbitrators in each case are to be sworn and are given power to summon witnesses before a settlement is made.

In the Senate.

Senator Williford introduced a new bill which, if passed, will amend section 342 of the penal code of 1895, making it unlawful for one to have in his possession any dirk, bowie-knife, pistol or any kind of deadly weapon, at any court of justice, election ground, place of public worship, or any other public gathering in the state, as well as to carry about his person.

Senator Boyd of the thirty-second, stated that he would introduce in a few days a bill which provides for a system of macadamized roads for Georgia, which will improve the public roads in every county of the state.

Senator J. R. Brock, of the forty-fourth district, will introduce in a few days a bill providing for the placing of mines and mining property under the jurisdiction of the state. The bill will provide for the proper ventilation of the mines.

Fatal Alcoholic Bath.

Pasadena, Cal., July 25.—Mrs. Claude E. Markey, of this city was burned to death Tuesday night in her home. She had taken an alcoholic bath before retiring and put a hot iron to her feet. The alcohol fumes accumulating under the bed clothes, became ignited and the woman was dead before help reached her.

Sothern's Leading Lady.

Worcester, Mass., July 25.—Announcement is made here that Miss Florence Reed, daughter of the late comedian, Roland Reed, has signed a contract with E. H. Sothern to be his leading woman next season in his revival of "Dundreary" and other plays.

May Run for Congress.

Atlanta, July 25.—Hon. E. H. McMichael, representative from Marion county, has announced to some of his friends at the state capitol his intention of making the race for congress in the fourth congressional district. He has not as yet made formal announcement of his candidacy.

93 ARE STILL MISSING

Victims of the Steamer Horror on the Pacific.

108 ARE REPORTED SAVED

Of the Officers and Crew Forty Were Saved and Sixteen Are Said To Be Still Missing—The Remains Shipped to Relatives.

San Francisco, July 25.—Different changes have been made in the lists of lost and saved of the steamer Columbia.

The steamer officials have been informed that Chew Mock, of Oakland, a Chinese first-class traveler, who was reported missing, was among the saved.

Miss R. Musser was also among those saved, instead of missing, as at first reported.

The company has announced that the bodies of the victims were held by the corner at Eureka pending orders from friends and relatives to have them shipped to this city and Portland. The remains of eastern passengers will be sent home by both routes.

A revised list of the passengers shows 108 saved and 77 missing. Of the officers and crew, forty were saved and sixteen are missing. This makes a total of 93 unaccounted for.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.

Plans for Electric Railways and Cotton Factories Announced.

Columbus, Ga., July 25.—An industrial pamphlet for Alabama and Georgia, in an issue of this week, says that news of plans for the building of more cotton factories and more interurban electric railways and a typical purchase by Ohio and Pennsylvania capitalists of a large tract of south Alabama land upon which improvements to cost $100,000 will be made, are interesting features of advance reports.

A $2[illegible],000 cotton mill is projected at Junction City, Ga. At Douglasville, Ga., a company, which is to build a $200,000 cotton mill, has effected organiation, will subscribe the entire capital stock and by January 1, 1908, expects to have a 10,000 spindle factory in operation.

Electric railways between Blackshear, Ga., and Waycross, Ga., and between Eatonton, Ga., and Madison, Ga., are projected. Organization will be effected in a few days by the company which will build an electric railway, previously reported, between Quitman, Ga., and Valdosta, Ga.; surveys are being made for the line projected between Griffin, Ga., and Social Circle, Ga., and contracts will be awarded and construction begin in a few days upon the electric railway between Macon, Ga., and Albany, Ga., via Americus, Ga.

Cardinal Gibbons Celebrates.

Westminster, Md., July 25.—Cardinal Gibbons, who was 73 years old Tuesday, celebrated the event quietly at the home of friends here. The cardinal said he was in splendid health. In commenting on his long life and his work the cardinal said that a life of usefulness and helpfulness to one's followmen is the only life worth living, and with the glorious hope of immortality, the measure of one's years was not bounded by time, but endured forever.

Terms Agreed Upon.

Tokio, July 25.—It is understood that the terms of the Russo-Japanese entente were agreed on at a meeting of the elder statesmen held Tuesday. The entente probably will be published shortly and simultaneously in both countries. This step will precede the publication of the commercial treaty between Russia and Japan.

Two Deaths From Heat.

Chicago, July 25.—Two deaths and five prostrations as the result of the excessive heat, were reported Tuesday in Chicago. The temperature was 87 degrees.

CLERK SHORT $30,000.

Retiring Louisville Official Has Big Deficit to Explain.

[illegible] Ky., July 25.—William J. [illegible], county clerk, was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of embezzlement, it being alleged that he is short in his accounts as clerk of Jefferson county, in a sum [illegible] estimating from $15,000 to $30,000. The arrest, which was made at the instance of Mayor Reyburn, created a tremendous sensation. Mr. [illegible] executed bond in the sum of $[illegible] within a short time after his arrest.

Several [illegible] of the officials whose [illegible] was declared vacant by the court of appeals in deciding the ripper police cases. When his successor, Paul B. Thompson, was appointed a few days ago the accounts of the office were checked up, with the result that the head bookkeeper [illegible] that there was a shortage of over $15,000.

There had been rumors of a shortage for two years, but the book of State Auditor Hager, when examined, showed Semonin's accounts with the state to be correct up until June 1, 1907. When Semonin's successor was appointed the former had just mailed a check for $15,000 to the state auditor's office for the month of June.

Payment was refused by the bank on which it was drawn, and Mr. Semonin declared quickly that he had stopped payment when he found he was not to be retained in office, his idea being to have all accounts checked up and to settle in full with the state on his retirement.

When interviewed he stated emphatically that a full examination of the books would show that he did not owe the state over $22,000; the amount of his collections for June and July, which he had the legal right to withhold until he had been given his quietus, and which will be paid in full. There was no shortage in the legal or moral sense of the word, he declared.

HOT IN AUGUSTA, GA.

Eggs Were Fried by the Heat on Broad Street.

Augusta, Ga., July 25.—It was so hot in Augusta that an egg broken upon the vitrified brick pavement of Broad street, cooked thoroughly within four minutes on Tuesday.

Actuated by some unknown motive, a number of young men made the experiment at about 4 o'clock. A large crowd gathered and watched the egg slowly fry. Within four minutes' time it was cooked as well as if it had been in a hot frying pan. Similar experiments were made by skeptical people all along Broad street, and but for the intervention of the police, who ordered the egg cooking stopped, Augusta's prominent thoroughfare might have been turned into one huge frying pan, aided and abetted by the efforts of the sun.

Fatal Powder Explosion.

New London, Conn., July 25.—One man was killed by the explosion of a bag of powder in one of the six-inch batteries at Fort Terry, Plum island, N. Y., Tuesday, and three members of company K, Third regiment, Connecticut national guard, more or less hurt. The accident took place during the sham attack upon the forts and in which the entire Third regiment of Connecticut and the regulars were taking part. The dead man was Private Hammond, of the One Hundredth company, United States artillery.

Hangs Six Children; Kills Self.

Copenhagen, July 25.—Grief-stricken by a notification that her services would not be required after the end of this month, [illegible] Olsson, a housekeeper for a [illegible] named Ulrikjaer, of Jutland, hanged three of her employer's children as well as three of her own, and then killed herself by hanging.

Reward Is Offered.

Atlanta, July 25.—A reward of $[illegible] for the arrest of [illegible] in Walton county for the murder of Warren Simmons on July 22 was offered Tuesday by Governor Smith.

WANT "TEDDY" AGAIN

Roosevelt Urged to Accept Another Nomination.

RECEIVES MANY LETTERS

From All Parts of the Country the President Has Received Post Cards Urging Him to Make Another Race for the Presidency.

New York, July 25.—From many parts of the country President Roosevelt has, during the last few days, received postal cards urging him to reconsider his declaration of 1904, and accept another nomination for the presidency.

They are rather elaborately printed, containing a picture of the White House, under which is the inscription "Uncle Sam will renew the lease."

The post cards have come from many states, and the growing flood of them indicates that some one has started a campaign to induce the president to change his mind.

GOV. GLENN'S VIEWS.

Regarding Rate Law Adopted by the State of North Carolina.

New York, July 25.—R. B. Glenn, governor of North Carolina, in a telegram to several newspapers here, gives his views on the clash between the Federal and state courts regarding the rate law adopted by the state of North Carolina. He says:

"Our state contends that its rate law is constitutional; that it is not confiscatory of the property of the railroads and that penalties and indictments against persons violating the law are just and right. The federal court without finding that the act was unconstitutional and rate confiscatory, has attempted to stop all proceedings whatsoever in the state court, even to stopping indictments therein made. Our courts, having jurisdiction, we contend have a right to proceed to final judgment and that, if aggrieved, the defendants can only appeal through our supreme court to the supreme court of the United States."

MANY CRIMES COMMITTED.

Nomad Gypsy Band Terrorizing Portions of Hungary.

Budapest, July 25.—A long list of murders and other outrages committed recently by nomad gypsy bands at Puszta, and elsewhere in Hungary, has brought the question of controlling the gypsies, a problem that has confronted the Hungarian governemtn for a century or so, again to the front.

The alarm arising from this outbreak of crime is widespread and there is a powerful movement on foot to compel the goverament finally to solve the problem of the distribution of these 50,000 wanderers in Hungary, whose depredations terrorize the country districts.

Successive governments have made futile efforts to induce the gypsies to settle down and live quietly. A majority of the crimes in Hungary, murders, kidnapings and robberies are committed by gpysies, and the yare seldom apprehended.

Cuban Affairs in Good Shape.

New York, July 25.—Colonel William Black, U. S. A., acting as advisor to the secretary of public works of the Cuban provincial government, who has just arrived from Havana, spoke encouragingly of Cuban affairs, particularly of the road building since the Spanish-American war. He said the government has appropriated $12,000,000 for thi work alone. He said that in his opinion there will be in Cuba a good field for civil engineers, with ambition.

For Consular Service.

Washington, July 25.—The state department has made public the results of the recent examination of the candidates for appointment for the consular service for which fifty-four persons were designated, 38 presented for examination and only thirteen passed, the required mark of 80.

LATEST NEWS FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL

Cortelyou is Well Known Throughout Western States.

THE PRESIDENT MAY RUN AGAIN

After a Few "Try-Outs" of Favorite Sons It is Possible He May Consent to Lead His Party Once More.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., July 25.—United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia is authority for the statement that New York will present the Hon. George Bruce Cortelyou for President in the Republican National convention of 1908. Mr. Elkins was in New York recently and found such a decided sentiment in favor of the Secretary of the Treasury in business circles that no doubt was left in his mind as to the preference of the party in the next convention. He says that a high Federal official, who has power in New York political circles and is handling the Cortelyou boom, was amazed to find how well known Cortelyou is in all the Western states. This is not to be wondered at for an observing young man like Cortelyou, who has made seventy speeches with two Presidents of the United States, and is an official secretary, ought to know a few eminent men in all the States of the Union. This is apt to bring about a warm fight in the Empire State, for Cortelyou is a strong man and has hosts of friends, and the man who secures the State delegation will know he has been in a warm struggle.

President Roosevelt is devoting his time at Oyster Bay to rest and recreation absolutely. Many prominent politicians who desired to confer with him on political matters have found it extremely difficult to arrange for a pow-wow. This does not mean, however, that he is not keeping in touch with the situation. Notwithstanding his repeated assertion that he will not again be a candidate for Presidential honors, the belief is growing that should the people demand it, he will again become their leader. In all the States where "favorite sons" are beating the tom-toms Roosevelt is easily the first choice of the people—the masses—and if there ever is a time when the people, and not the politicians, name the candidates, that time is close at hand. It is indeed significant that the men who have been put forward as Presidential timber—Taft, Knox, Root, Fairbanks, and Cortelyou—have failed to arouse the enthusiasm of the populace. What would be the action should the President announce that while not desiring another term, if the people demanded it he would serve them? After a few more "try-outs" of favorite sons may-be that announcement will be made.

Judge Parker believes that the Democrats of New York and the North will be glad to support a Southern man for the Presidency, and that the party is rich in men possessing all the requirements for the position. In this it is thought that Judge Parker is making the New York corporations realize their desire to wean the South from Bryan, and, that accomplished, they will find and name their candidate. The Wall Street slogan is "anything to beat Bryan." The other people in the country care very little nowadays what Wall Street wants, and with Bryan paralleling Roosevelt in many public doctrines, he looms at the head of the Democratic ranks as does Roosevelt in the Republican forces.

Not Ready to Act.

The Government is still at sea with reference to the Harriman prosecutions. Another conference of Federal officials will be held, probably at Oyster Bay, in the near future, to decide whether civil actions will be brought in the Federal courts to dissolve the alleged illegal mergers of railroad property. Harriman is not saying anything, but we will hear from him when a decision is reached.

Mule Killed By Lightning.

Last week during a severe electrical storm at Alachua a mule owned by the Alachua Ice Co. was struck and killed instantly.

The lightning first struck a telegraph pole near which the mule was standing. Many people saw the mule fall and did everything possible to revive the animal, but without avail.

DEATH OF MRS. KLEIN.

One of Albion's Oldest Residents Dies in New Jersey.

Mrs. Caroline M. Klein, formerly of Albion, Fla., died at her home in Camden, N. J., on July 12, of Bright's disease, aged 64 years.

Mrs. Klein was one of the first settlers of Albion. She was the widow of the late John Klein, and mother of Florence, John, Stewart and Lewis Klein. Whilst to the outside world she was a successful housekeeper, yet to her friends and relatives she was admired for her gentleness and amiability. Her devotion to family was exhibited in the quiet self denials and personal sacrifices for their comfort or pleasure. Few women have ever proved such a mother, and few mothers have ever proved such a woman.

While quite young she joined the Presbyterian church, and ever manifested the love of God by her charity, benevolence and sympathy for the afflicted or distressed. To her religion was an active principle and not a dead force. The humblest or poorest were regarded as important as the great and rich. Life to her was no dream, but an opportunity for doing good.

We tender our sympathy to the children, who mourn their greatest loss, the death of their mother.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

HAWTHORN NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. A. L. Webb and children have started North on a summer trip. She is now visiting her sister, Mrs. DeLoam at Valdosta, Ga. From there she will visit North Carolina points.

Glenn Moore has obtained a leave of absence from his rural mail route for thirty days and will soon visit Indian Springs, then go to Tennessee.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

The Atlantic Coast Line Offering Some Attractive Rates.

The Jamestown Exposition, like all other expositions when they first open, has not the buildings all completed, nor all the exhibits in good shape. This exposition will be kept open, and by referring to the advertisement carried in this paper you will note attractive rates, and time limits to suit the vacations of anyone.

Realizing and appreciating that one day in the week, namely Tuesday, was the only day on which coach excursion tickets could be purchased, the Atlantic Coast Line has instructed all their ticket agents that the coach excursion rates will be in effect on Friday as well as Tuesday, thus making two days in the week that people who do not feel like going to the extra expense of buying sleeper berths, but want to take a trip off for an outing, can avail themselves of this very reduced rate, which is about one cent a mile for distance traveled or $14.05 for the round trip from Jacksonville, with correspondingly low rates from all other points.

The rate named above is a very low one and is one which a great many people are availing themselves of, taking advantage of the two days fixed for the coach excursion rates, one day at the first of the week and one day at the last of the week.

By consulting your nearest railroad agent he will quote you rates through, not only for the coach excursion, which is particularly referred to in this writing, but any additional limit of tickets.

If you cannot see the agent personally by dropping a card or letter to Frank C. Boylston, district passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line at Jacksonville, Florida, you will be furnished with rates direct, to any point desired, and to the exposition with any kind of a limit of ticket.

THE U. S. JUDGESHIP.

Col. H. S. Chubb is of Opinion That Mr. Sheppard Will be Appointed.

Col. H. S. Chubb, register of the United States land office, having recently returned from a trip North, The Sun reporter asked him who he thought would be appointed to fill the vacancy in the United States judgeship for the Northern District of Florida, caused by the recent death of Judge Swayne. The Colonel replied that he paid no attention to all this talk about a man from North Carolina or any other State being named for the place, and that he was confident Mr. Sheppard, the present United States attorney for the northern circuit, would secure the appointment. Col. Chubb says Mr. Sheppard is highly endorsed by both Democrats and Republicans. The Republican organization is supporting him also, and there is no doubt but what he will be appointed by the President.

ANOTHER REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Chas. A. Faircloth Buys Marcus Endel Home from Lee Graham.

Chas. A. Faircloth, cashier of the Gainesville National Bank, has demonstrated the confidence he has in Gainesville's future by buying a home here. He will move his family here about the middle of September.

Mr. Faircloth closed the deal with Lee Graham Thursday whereby he becomes the owner of the Marcus Endel home, on North Pleasant street. This is a fine piece of property and Mr. Faircloth is congratulating himself upon being able to secure this home for himself and family.

Rock Crusher Again at Work.

A new transformer has been received and installed and the motor is again able to run the rock crusher. There will be plenty of crushed rock from now on to continue the construction of the side walks and for paving the streets without interruption.

Work on Church Nearly Completed.

Workmen were busily engaged yesterday putting in the new cathedral glass windows in Holy Trinity Episcopal church. The new furniture is arriving daily, and when it is all here and installed it will be one of the handsomest churches in the State.

Make a Summer Resort of your Porch

The market is full of shades—good, bad and indifferent—but the stands in a class alone as the Standard Porch Cooler, with a reputation as unassailable as Ivory Soap or Huyler's Chocolates.

A hundred thousand American homes, including the White House at Washington, are equipped with them, and here in Gainesville the scores of VUDOR Shades on nearly every street—some hung two years ago—are the best testimonials we could ask.

A WILD-CAT CHASE.

Den Whittington and Others Have a Fine Hunt Near High Springs.

Den Whittington, a colored brakeman on the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, got a day off a few days ago and gathered together a party and went out hunting for wild-cats. After being out for about an hour they found a huge cat and a merry chase ensued.

The party had several dogs with them and the cat was treed about two and a half miles out from High Springs. The cat was about the largest ever seen around High Springs, measuring four feet and three inches.

A Pleasant Moonlight Party.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. McCormick, Miss Beatrice Avera, Miss Sue Simpson, Mosby Taylor and Harvey Robinson formed a jolly party who went on a moonlight ride to the lake a few nights ago. They carried a dainty lunch, which was spread upon the banks of the lake and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. McCormick says it was the best party she ever chaperoned.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DANGER OF COAL FAMINE.

The New York Commercial remarks that if we may judge from the appeals made by the railroads of the West to the retail coal dealers along their lines to supply themselves with coal, there is felt to be great danger of a coal famine in Minnesota and Nebraska, Kansas and in the Northwest generally fully as serious as that of last winter. The dangers of a coal shortage are much greater now than formerly, owing to the fact that the railroads under their enforced retirement from interstate coal trade can no longer anticipate local demands by taking a vigorous hand in the production and distribution. The supplies that are to make next winter less of a terror in some regions than last winter must now depend on the foresight of the dealers who have the opportunity to order in advance of the consumers' demands. The appeals made to such agencies by the Union Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railways are couched in language that emphasizes the fact that the retail dealers are not appreciating the gravity of the situation. Apparently, the railroads are placing themselves in a correct position, and their attitude will be indorsed by the country at large. A coal famine next winter, as the result of the supineness of the local dealers, would not only fail of receiving public sympathy, but would tend to blacklist those regions against immigration from the other parts of the country.

FROM THE PAGES OF FLORIDA PAPERS.

Would Singe Him.

Where is the man who said that he has inside knowledge on the subject and that there was to be no summer this year? Let the mendacious caitiff present himself at these headquarters and catch the sulphurous breath of a few steaming remarks we would be glad to hiss into his ear.—Live Oak Democrat.

Should Favor Home Industry.

The Governor has gone to New York with his wife, sister and eight children to select the furniture for the new mansion—Tallahassee True Democrat. Wonder if the Governor couldn't have found suitable furniture a little closer home? Judging by the size of his family we would pronounce him an advocate of 'home industry.—Miami Metropolis.

No Need of Immigration.

The town of Town Creek, Ala., with only 280 population, has had fifteen babies born to six couples within two weeks. Three couples had triplets born to them, and three had twins. The people there are enthusiastic over the record, have notified the President and have petitioned the Postoffice Department to change the name of the town to Teddyville. It is perhaps needless to say that Town Creek sees no reason to agitate for immigration.—The Times-Union Short Talks.

Fort Bully Annexed.

The decision of the Supreme Court affirming Judge Wall's decision in the Hayes case gives the sanction of the highest judicial body in the State to the constitutionality of the act of the last Legislature which validated the election of 1905, annexing Fort Brooke to Tampa. This settles the question and will meet general approval.

The ending of the litigation in a satisfactory manner adds increased interest to the election of July 30th to determine whether other suburban areas east, north and west of the city shall be annexed. The public generally, The Tribune believes, are in favor of the annexation, as it is the only logical thing to do in order that these largely populated sections may receive the benefit of municipal utilities.

There seems absolutely no doubt that the election will carry for annexation, and so this area and Fort Brooke added to Tampa will be the beginning of an expansion that will continue until the Queen City of the Gulf shall grow into a great and commanding metropolis.—Tampa Tribune.

The dim roof garden theater, caves, studios and the habbitats of the depraved rich—luxurious, brilliant and wild with beauty—are not the lairs of an ignorant mob fresh from the under-world. They belong ofttimes to those influential enough to forbid the court to publish names. These perfumed and sweetly scented harems belong to the elect and chosen. Birds of prey always build their nests up high.

Wisconsin is the first to legislate on theatrical attire. One of her solons dared to introduce a bill that requires the skirt to reach at least four inches below the knees. While this is a great blow to the modern effort to elevate dramatic art, it is calculated to make restless the "undressed" fashion seen in the evening functions among the swell and the elite.

Embarrassing.

A famous scientist whose early home had been in a country district had long promised to visit the scenes of his boyhood and deliver a lecture in aid of the funds of one of the institutions of the place. At last he fulfilled his promise, and the lecture was given. When at the close of his lecture he was conversing with some of the principal promoters of the affair they warmly congratulated him on the facility with which he made rather technical matter interesting and clear to his uncultured audience.

"Oh," said he, by way of explanation, "I invariably fix my attention upon the member of my audience who strikes me as having the least intelligent face, and I continue to explain any subject upon which I touch until I see by that person's expression that he understands it."

Almost directly afterward the leading public official of the little town came into the room and made his way to where the scientist was standing.

"Sir," he exclaimed, "you cannot possibly believe how much real pleasure you have given me tonight. It seemed to me all the time as if your eye was never away from me, that you spoke to me alone and that your whole wish was to make me understand every word you said."—Chicago Journal.

The bill to move Deacon Jones' distillery nearer town has been laid on the table, the idea being that the distillery would lay all our citizens on the floor.

The legislature was prayed for at campmeeting last Sunday, but the brethren didn't pray loud enough to wake up the angels.

While we were all praying for dry weather yesterday a rain came down and we narrowly escaped drowning. So we have concluded that we know as little about running the weather as the United States Government.

The Colonel and Fate.

"Talking about Fate stepping in and upsetting all your plans," said the colonel, "a friend of mine in Kentucky has just sent me a barrel of the best whiskey ever made in that glorious old State, and I'm blest if my wife hasn't written me from the seashore that she's coming home to make me sign a petition for the passage of the prohibition bill!"

FIGHT FOR FUSION WON.

Victory for Democrats and Populists of Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., July 25.—The Democrats and Populists of Nebraska have won their fight for fusion on the tickets at the first direct primary election on September 3, the supreme court handing down a decision overruling the demurrer of the attorney general and ordering the writ of mandamus to compel the secretary of state to permit fusion of the two ballots.

The fusionists now have until August 3rd to get their petitions out and names of candidates filed.

The suit was the outcome of the refusal of the secretary of state to put the name of a Populist on the Democratic ticket as candidate for regent of the state university, he acting on the advice of Attorney General Thompson who has wanted the law tested.

BABY TORTURED BY ITCHING RASH

IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND SPEEDY CURE

"My baby was about nine months old when she had rash on her face and feet. Her feet seemed to irritate her most, especially nights. They would cause her to be broken of her rest, and sometimes she would cry until she was tired out. I had always used Cuticura Soap myself, and had heard of so many cures by the Cuticura Remedies that I thought I would give them a trial. The improvement was noticeable in a few hours, and before I had used one box of the Cuticura Ointment her feet were well and have never troubled her since. I also used it to remove what is known as "cradle cap" from her head, and it worked like a charm as it cleansed and healed the scalp at the same time. Now I keep Cuticura Ointment on hand in case of any little rash or insect bites, as it takes out the inflammation at once. Perhaps this may be the means of helping other suffering babies. Mrs. Hattie Currier, Thomaston, Me., June 9, 1906."

CUTICURA—THE SET, $1.

Consisting of Cuticura Soap Ointment and Pills.

A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, when all other remedies and even the best physicians fail. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

STRIKE IN ORE MINES.

Receiving Serious Consideration from U. S. Steel Corporation.

New York, July 25.—The strike of the workmen in the ore mines of the Lake Superior fields is receiving the serious attention of the United States Steel corporation. William E. Corey, the president, has the handling of the strike under his supervision and his lieutenant, Thomas F. Cole, president of the Oliver Iron Mining company, is on the lookout at Duluth and Two Harbors.

Announcement is made that the corporation will stand out for what the officials consider common justice in its fight with the Western Federation of Miners. The organization has outlawed itself, the officers of the corporation hold, in disregarding the terms of its own resolutions before they had been in the hands of President Cole thirty-six hours.

The steel corporation does not believe that the men have any grievance and point to the fact that only last January an increase of wages was voluntarily granted to the men. Since then, it is stated, there has been no complaint from the men and no trouble was anticipated until the demands of the committee were received. The whole trouble has been stirred up from the outside by professional organizers, according to the steel officials who also say that less than 10 per cent of the men became members of the union. These, however, they say, have succeeded in intimidating the rest by marching through the iron country with red flags, burning property and beating men who tried to remain at work.

The shutting down of the mines has already been felt by the men along the lines of the ore railroads and on the lake docks. There are nearly 17,000 men employed on the transportation lines of the corporation who may be affected by the strike.

NOTABLE WEDDING.

Tobacco King Wins Heart and Hand of Mrs. Inman, of Atlanta.

New York, July 25.— James B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco company, was married Tuesday to Mrs. Nannaline Holt Inman. The Rev. Dr. J. B. Burrell, pastor of the Marble Collegiate church, on Fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, officiated at the home of Mrs. William Schuyler Stackpole,, Brooklyn.

Mrs. Inman, who was Miss Nannaline Holt, of Macon, was in her girlhood recognized as one of the most beautiful women in Georgia, and has been a leader in the social life of Atlanta, where she has resided.

Visiting much of late in the east and in Florida during the season, her stately brunette beauty and her social grace have won her admiration among the smartest people of this country, and she has been feted and flattered by them.

Her marriage to Mr. Duke will remove from Atlanta one of its most representative and noted women, and will give to eastern social life a noted southern beauty and belle.

BIG COAL VEIN OPENED.

Lehigh Valley Coal Company Has the Largest Stripping in World.

Shenandoah, Pa., July 25.—The Lehigh Valley Coal company has opened what is believed to be the largest stripping in the world.

It is located at Lattimer and the coal is in a solid bed 1,200 feet wide, 25 feet in thickness, and extends from Lattimer to Drigon, at least six miles.

It is estimated that were the company to take out 500 tons daily, it would require 250 years to exhaust the supply.

Good Times Prevailing.

Washington, July 25.—Good times prevail in Santo Domingo according to reports received at the insular bureau. Under a readjustment of salaries just provided for by the Dominican lawmakers, the president is to receive $10,000, an increase of $5,000, and the heads of the executive departments and the members of congress will receive substantial increases. The raises extend down the entire line. Counting on a continuance of the American receivership, the treasury officials estimate the customs receipts for the next fiscal year will exceed those of the present year by $425,000, and the collections will aggregate a million dollars more than they were two years ago.

Are Living in Clover.

Fitchburg, Mass., July 25—Strike breakers who have been brought here in the hope of breaking the strike of machinists, are living in clover. They are quartered in the $50,000 Fitchburg Athletic gymnasium and have all manner of luxuries. The kitchen is presided over by a French chef. They have free run of the place and at night the billiard and card rooms are in constant use by them.

Russian Newspapers Fined.

Moscow, July 25.—The Vedomosti and the Slove, two of the most liberal papers in the country, again have been heavily fined. Fines have been imposed upon several newspapers published in Kiev, Kaan and Penza, and weekly Gazette of the constitutional Democrats in St. Petersburg, has been fined $500.

Shot Wife for Burglar.

Chicago, July 25.—Mrs. Jennie Lauberbauer, 47 years old, was shot and instantly killed by he rhusband Joseph, 51 years of age, Tuesday, at their home in West Twentieth street. Lauberbauer told the police that he mistook his wife for a burglar. The police are inclined to believe his story.

Engagement Announced.

Paris, July 25.—The Figaro announces the engagement of Count Ottio Bonni and Mary T., eldest daughter of James Galy, first vice-president of the steel corporation. The marriage will take place in November in Gayly's residence at New York.

Preachers Get More Pay.

Wilmington, Del., July 24.—Good crops throughout the Delaware and Maryland peninsula is having the effect of raising the salaries of preachers generally. Several clergymen have already had their pay increased and it is stated that the movement will become general.

Telegraphers Among Victims.

El Paso, Tex., July 25.—Among those perished in the collision between the Columbia and San Pedro passenger were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark of thi splace. They were telegraphers.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

BACKACHE.

I can sympathize with a sufferer from this awful symptom of weak kidneys. That soreness and pain in the small of the back tells too plainly of serious trouble behind it. It's not a hot water bottle or a plaster you need. That won't cure diseased kidneys. It may relieve you for a time it's true but why mask the real cause and allow the trouble to grow? Don't do it. Weak kidneys can be cured but Bright's disease, which always follows neglect of them cannot. Go and get a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery and Cooper's Quick Relief and use them faithfully. Your backache will disappear because your kidney trouble is corrected—not for a day but for good. When your kidneys are in "ship-shape" there will be nothing more to cause it.

MR. P. LEONARD.

Here's a letter from a man who suffered for years in this way and took my advice:

"I have been in such bad health for some years that I finally had to give up work. I suffered from kidney trouble. My back was so sore and lame that I could scarcely get up and down. My stomach was also out of order and my nervous system broken down. I have been using the Cooper medicines for one week and actually feel like a new man. My food digests perfectly. The soreness and pain has entirely gone from my back and my kidneys are in fine shape. The medicine has strengthened me wonderfully and I cheerfully give you this testimonial for publication." Mr. P. Leonard, 49 School St., Allegheny, Pa.

We have heard a number of favorable comments on the Cooper preparations from people who have purchased them from us.

BEWARE OF STRIPES.

Animals That Wear Them Are Said to Be Treacherous.

"Show me a striped wild animal, and I will show you one you want to keep your eye on," said the circus man. "I have had to do with wild animals now for a good many years—I won't tell you how many because I am getting old enough to feel the weight of these time posts—and I have never yet come up with a striped beast that did not show mean traits.

"Sometimes I wonder if this is not the way nature has of marking up the bad fellows so that they may be known, just as we put striped suits on the impossibly bad of the human kind. Take hyenas, for instance. They come under the head of a dog species. How seldom you ever hear of a dog snipping the hand that feeds it! These ugly things are liable to do it any time.

"Zebras are pudgy little horses with stripes that give away their temperament. Every now and then you hear of zebras broken to harness. Well, I have seen a few of these, but they didn't go far before something else was broken besides the zebra's mean nature. They are strong and good looking, but so infernally cussed that there is no doing anything with them.

"Sometimes a lion's mane is marked with uneven black circles. When this is the case, it is wise not to get too familiar. It is the sign of a bad streak somewhere in Leo's makeup, and there is no telling when this strain might turn his strength into savage danger.

"The elephant is good natured and obedient. The camel takes life easily and doesn't seem to worry about anything so long as he is left to munch by himself. A bear with a fur of several shadings is a bad one to take risks with.

"The tapir is a harmless beast and rather affectionate. He can even cry. Big rolling tear drops show this when his keeper cuts him out of a meal or goes away for a day or two. The llama is an animal sort that may be properly classed with the spotted animals. Brown and white and black and white in huge splashes lend to the good looks of its curling coat. It has big lamblike eyes and would run from a baby."—Boston Globe.

Call Early For Good Ones.

At the end of a big ball one of the guests went into the cloakroom at 3 in the morning to put on his things, and the attendant came forward with a coat.

"That isn't my coat," said the guest. "Mine is a perfectly new one."

"A new one? Oh, I haven't any new coats left after half-past 12."—Squire.

TALKED TOO MUCH.

Loquacity Cost Him His Membership in the Philosophers' Club.

"I was visiting my old friend in Munich, Bavaria," said Hans Meyer, the artist, "when my father suggested proposed to take me with him to the Philosophers' club. I was glad to go. I had heard a great deal about this club and intended at the first to visit it, knowing that I should meet there some of the most famous thinkers of all Germany.

"As we neared the club my father cautioned me not to talk too much, since it might be objectionable to some of the eminent thinkers.

"In the one large room which constituted the club's quarters we found a score or more of learned looking men sitting silently puffing their long stemmed pipes. For fifteen or twenty minutes not a sound was heard louder than the sizzling of tobacco in the pipes, then one of the men who seemed to be in the most profound state of meditation removed his pipe from between his lips, nodded his head in a reflective way and said:

"'Yah.'

"He seemed to have solved the deep problem on which he had been thinking, and I expected him to launch upon the tide of time some grand eternal truth fresh from the dry dock of his mind. But he only returned his pipe to his mouth and subsided into that dense silence from which he had emerged only for the moment.

"Half an hour passed before another word was spoken; then a great philosopher at the other side of the room removed his pipe from his lips, nodded his massive head slowly and in that same tone of abstraction said:

"'Yah.'

"He, too, I presumed, had solved some great problem, and I listened for an exposition of it, but he merely placed his pipe back between his teeth and settled down again to that silence which was almost dinful.

"It was nearly an hour before anybody spoke again. This time it was a hoary headed old philosopher, who took his pipe from his mouth, wagged his head and remarked, as had his predecessors:

"'Yah.'

"The next day my father delighted me by telling me that I had been admitted as a member of the Philosophers' club and was free to attend its meetings. So I was present at the next one, a few evenings later.

"With my pipe in my mouth, I observed the silence that seemed to be so popular there until four or five of the leading thinkers had in as many half hours removed their pipes and uttered the customary 'Yah.' Then I thought it was up to me to prove that I was a worthy member who also had things on his mind. So I removed my pipe, nodded my head and said:

"'Yah, yah.'

"The next day I learned that I had been expelled for talking too much."—Willis Brooks in Brooklyn Eagle.

An Extraordinary Bombardment.

One of the most extraordinary hoaxes on record is said to have been played upon the Dewan Laila Moolraj, a native potentate of the Punjab, during the second Sikh war, in the winter of 1848-49. The British army, commanded by Sir Hugh Gough, had shut up the dewan and his forces in the fortified city of Mooltan. One day the besiegers were amazed by the thunderous sound of a most extraordinary cannonade, followed not by shot or shell, but by an assortment of miscellaneous provisions in a very fragmentary condition raining into the British lines. The Sikh chieftain, it was afterward discovered, had found in the city a large store of canned meats of the nature of which he was completely ignorant. A native spy in British pay gravely informed him that they were powerful explosives, and hence for some days the British camp was greeted with showers of Strassburg pates and other more or less mangled but perfectly eatable tinned food.—Scrap Book.

Faking a Living Picture.

Probably the most notable faked living picture ever produced was that which purported to give a representation of the actual scene inside Westminster abbey at the king's coronation. The production was the work of an inventive Frenchman, who had special scenery of the abbey painted and reproductions of the historical costumes made. Then a number of French actors were made up to represent the king, the aged primate and other central figures—and remarkably lifelike they were. The mock coronation ceremony took place at a quiet little village in Brittany, and the films were sent to London for reproduction in one of the leading houses of entertainment. The managers, however, made no attempt to impose on the public, and openly confessed that the scene was a fake.—London Mail.

Wonderful Effect.

Mrs. Money Bags—I hear you have spent a great deal of your time in Italy? Mrs. Parvenu—Oh, yes, my dear; we're quite italicised.—Princeton Tiger.

"Money in the Bank"

At THE GAINESVILLE NATIONAL BANK you have the advantage of a big and strong institution whose policy is to give the same careful consideration to the smallest depositor as to the largest.

Along these lines this Bank is increasing its deposits every day. We would like to have your account.

Come around to our office and let us show you through. You'll be surprised to see how complete our Bank is in every particular.
